DAVID CHRISTOPHER MAYHEW )

) No. 5:13-CR-199-2F(1)

The Grand Jury charges that:

INTRODUCTION

I. PURPOSE OF THE SCHEME AND ARTIFICE

1. From in or around January 2009, and continuing to in or around May 2012, the Defendants, RONALD EARL MCCULLOUGH and DAVID CHRISTOPHER MAYHEW, devised a scheme and artifice to defraud investors and to obtain money by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises.

II. THE SCHEME AND ARTIFICE

2. MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW solicited investors personally and through others to invest in what they described as an exclusive foreign currency exchange group.

3. MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW told investors that the minimum to participate in the group was $1 million but that because MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW were "Christians" who wanted to help other Christians "build wealth," they would allow the victims to invest through their trading account.

4. They told the victims that their return was "guaranteed" and that their principal was safe and would be returned.

5. MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW promised high returns to investors, often double the money invested within 30 days.

6. MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW sometimes paid returns to investors for their initial investments.

7. Encouraged by these returns, investors often reinvested larger sums of money that MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW never repaid.

8. MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW also used other individuals, including Person 1 and Person 2, to sell their investment.

9. Person 1 and Person 2 both initially invested some of their own money. After these investments, Person 1 and Person 2 began soliciting other investors, including their family members. Person 1 and Person 2 expected to receive some of the profit of the individuals who invested through them.

10. In soliciting other investors, Person 1 and Person 2 conveyed the false information MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW provided to them to prospective investors.

11. Despite the promises made, most of the money invested was never used for foreign currency trading or investing of any kind.

12. MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others spent the money personally and used it to repay past investors their principal and interest in an effort to create the impression that the investment was successful and that their representations were true.

13. In many cases, MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW immediately or very quickly used the money provided by investors for purposes contrary to the promises they had made.

14. In an effort to further the scheme, MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW also made other false representations, including but not limited to, how they had spent the money of investors, when they would pay them back, and why they were unable to pay them at the present time.

15. On or about September 24, 2009, one investor and his partner met MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW outside a local Raleigh restaurant. MCCULLOUGH and MAYHEW were accompanied by Person 3 and one or two other men. During the meeting, the investors demanded the return of their funds. MAYHEW and one of the other males displayed handguns under their clothing and MAYHEW instructed Person 3 to "kill" one of the investors if he moved. The investor's money was never returned.

COUNT 1
Conspiracy
18 U.S.C. § 371

Paragraphs 1 through 15 of the Introduction are incorporated herein by reference.

Beginning in or around January, 2009 and continuing through in or around May, 2012, in the Eastern District of North Carolina, Defendants RONALD EARL MCCULLOUGH and DAVID CHRISTOPHER MAYHEW did unlawfully and knowingly combine, conspire, confederate, and agree among themselves and others to commit offenses against the United States as follows:

- a. Mail Fraud. Having devised a scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, to use the mails and private and commercial interstate carriers to further, advance, and carry out the above-described scheme and artifice, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1341;
- b. Wire Fraud. Having devised a scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, for the purpose of executing such scheme, to transmit in interstate commerce, by means of wire communications, certain signals, that is wire transfers of money to and from the bank accounts used by the defendants, for the purpose of executing, and attempting to execute, the scheme and artifice to defraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343;

- c. Engaging in Unlawful Monetary Transactions. To knowingly engage and attempt to engage in monetary transactions affecting interstate commerce in criminally derived property of a value greater than $10,000 and derived from specified unlawful activity, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1957(a).

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to promote its unlawful objects, the defendants committed and caused to be committed overt acts in the Eastern District of North Carolina, including but not limited to:

- a. MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, met with investors and prospective investors and made false statements to induce them to provide money, each meeting constituting a separate overt act.

- b. Following investments being made, MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, communicated with investors and made false representations, including how they had spent the money of investors, when they would pay them back, and why they were unable to pay them at the present time, each communication constituting a separate overt act.
- c. MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, spent and used investor money for purposes contrary to the promises made to investors, each instance constituting a separate overt act.
- d. On or about September 24, 2009, MAYHEW and another individual threatened one of the investors who had demanded repayment.
- e. MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, used wires to send and receive investor money, each wire constituting a separate overt act.
- f. MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, used the mail to send and receive documents relating to the investments, each mailing constituting a separate overt act.

- g. MCCULLOUGH, MAYHEW, and others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, used investor money to make payments exceeding $10,000 to pawnbrokers and financial institutions, each payment constituting a separate overt act.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.
